PLAINTIFFS' SUBMISSION OF SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF ORIGINAL EMERGENCY APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Plaintiffs have pending before this Court a request for preliminary injunction, for which relief was previously partially granted and partially abated. Plaintiffs' Emergency Application for Preliminary Injunction, Doc. 5 (Jan. 17, 2020); Plaintiffs' Supplementary Brief in Support of Preliminary Injunction, Doc. 69 (May 13, 2020); Order, Doc. 46 (Jan. 30, 2020). One issue relevant to the current proceeding is the imminence of injury to Plaintiff Stringer both for the purposes of establishing standing and to demonstrate irreparable injury to warrant a preliminary injunction. Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully submit the attached Declaration of Plaintiff Jarrod Stringer and his accompanying notice of non-renewal of lease which he submitted to his landlord on June 18, 2020. Exhibit A. Mr. Stringer has previously testified as to his intent to move on or before the end of his current lease, which expires on August 24, 2020. See Excerpts of Apr. 29 Deposition of Jarrod Stringer at 35:6–36:24, Doc. 69-1 at 72-73. The attached notice of non-renewal further demonstrates that Mr. Stringer has concrete and imminent plans to move, and that he will once again be in a position to update his driver's license address online in the near future. Mr. Stringer has also testified that he will once again update his driver's license address online when he is in the position to do so, and, if able, will simultaneously update his voter registration information. See id. at 36:25-37:15, Doc. 69-1 at 73-74. These actions would be consistent with his past conduct, and all the more necessary due to the infeasibility of in-person transactions due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

As this Court is aware, Mr. Stringer has previously been injured on two separate occasions by Defendants' refusal to offer simultaneous voter registration application opportunities with online driver's license transactions and has been forced into litigation to vindicate his rights. If there is not a system in place for individuals to simultaneously apply to register to vote while conducting driver's license transactions online, in compliance with the mandates of the National Voter Registration Act, Mr. Stringer will have his legal rights violated for a third time. Additionally, the organizational and associational Plaintiffs in this case continue to experience daily irreparable injury as a result of Defendants' legal violations. Defendants have consistently indicated that they still believe substantial time may be required to completely finalize the remaining technological steps necessary to provide a simultaneous voter registration application experience. See Defendants' Supplemental Brief in Opposition to Plaintiffs' and Plaintiff-Intervenors' Request for Preliminary Injunction at 12-13, Doc. 74 (May 22, 2020). Therefore, Plaintiffs offer this additional information to support the standing and irreparable injury faced by Mr. Stringer, and respectfully urge consideration of their request for a preliminary injunction with relief granted as soon as practicable and in any event with sufficient time such that Plaintiff Stringer will be fully able to exercise his legal right to simultaneously change his voter registration address while updating his driver's license address online when he moves on or before August 24, 2020.
